Zelda

BOSS LEVEL

Dear Link, You have just started a new quest.

The quest is called Hero's Story and you may have already started playing it. You are in a slightly different world with different characters.

Your Mission: to discover this new world and report back to the class. You are like an ancient explorer visiting new lands. We need to know what this new place is like. Zelda is still missing.

Is she held prisoner by Gannon, or someone new?

Do you still need to collect the Triforce, or is there a new object you need to find in order to unlock the villian's castle/cave/or fortress?

You will be rewarded greatly for your efforts with Experience Points, known as XP. The more XP you receive the stronger you get.

You get to choose which tasks you want to do. You can do as few or as many of them as you want. The more you do, the more XP you get!

Right now, this world is very similar to the Legend of Zelda game, but you can change it to get XP.

In three weeks, at the end of the mission, anyone who has a lot of XP will get special rewards!

Here are your choices:
